1

Today I write it. For real.

Hour three, staring at a blank page

2

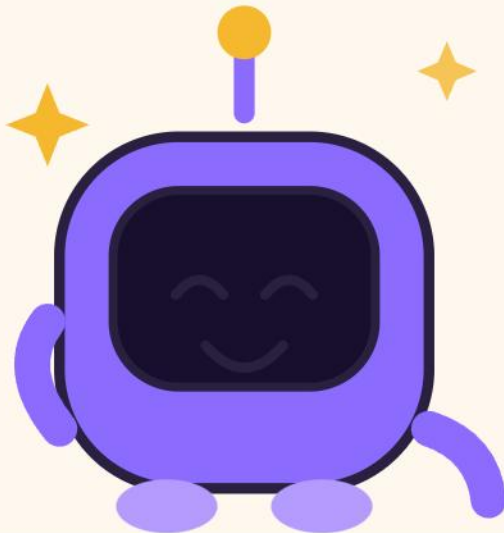

I've rewritten the title forty times.

The cursor has not left line one

3

Just give me one line!

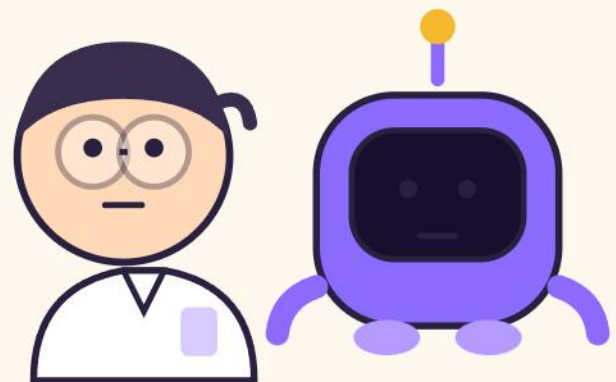

Enter INNO

4

...one line?

One research question. Or drop a PDF on me.

5

I'll read the topic and set up the governing equations.

Domain detected, coupled PDE system derived

6

The equations are... editable?!

OMML objects - edit them right in Word

7

And I run the 11-section check.

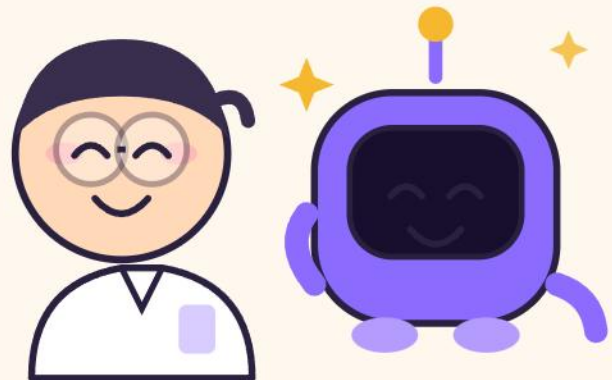

Math, experiment, statistics and document checks

8

I have a draft!

The judgment is yours now.
